Leaps & Bounds

This celebration of student choreographed work featured the work of six students choreo-graphers from the Composition 35 class and approximately 30 dancers from grades 7-12. The six student choreographers were Jennifer Clark, Jessamie Derkach, Lindsay Eales, Sophia Fedio, Laura Jackson and Christine Peter. These very enthusiastic student choreo-graphers studied the process of dance creation and the use of the medium of dance to discover their voice as emerging artists.

The evening also featured work from guest choreographers Brian Webb, Heidi Bunting and Emanuelle Jouthe.

Linz, I love you. We'll have to keep making our awesome music videos at work. (Britney would be proud) Remember our Sim parties and the "Stronger" dance. Michelle, What can I say besides nice punch? My Aunt loves you. You have taken up residence in my family tree. Carli, babe, sorry for kicking you. (but you have to get rid of that little pouch on your purse) Ben, thanks for always being there when I needed to talk, and remember how I always sang Heartbreaker and annoyed you. Charlene, together we'll go back to London, and I don't care what anyone says, Dave doesn't stink. Mark, I know you love me, you don't have to say it. And no, I don't hate techno.

A life lived in fear is a life half lived.

-unknown

Well life comes and goes, just like school. So live it up. It was just six years ago when I started at Vic, yet six years is a long time. I've had good times and bad times; but those times are what made me who I am today. Linds-had a lot of good times on the west side. Oh the good old times. Ash-french, purple, crab grass...all the things you hate! Carla-as a sister of the fellow brotherhood I salute you! marty-from Gr.7 to 12 you were always there. Don't have too much fun! For everyone else that I could not mention: Have a great Grad and a great future.

Lief Anderson

Matthew Appel

This year has gone by so fast. It seems like yesterday I was in grade ten, naive and innocent. Now in grade twelve I have come to realize that nothing lasts forever, and soon I will be naive and innocent in the real world. I want to thank all my friends and those who have helped me to become who I am today. DF, IB, MG, JM. And to my one and only love.

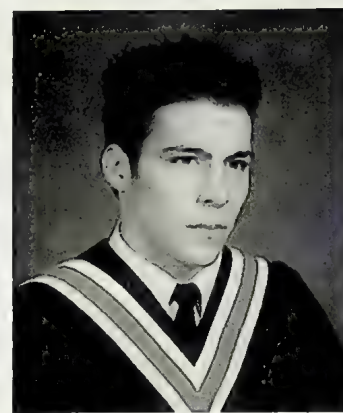

Sheena Archer

Well, I guess I should really say something about high school. LR- the worlds most observant girl. JD CE- So don't! CW- sorry, I only make the same mistake once. AN- so the grass really is greener on the other side of the fence. Grassy knoll folk- the meaning of life is to be. BA- twist my rubber arm. For those who remember- purple monkey dishwasher, but not really. A piece of advise for anyone who thought they knew me; no matter how big and special you think you are, they might just jump up and kick you in the shin. They came, they saw, they ran home with there tails between their legs.

Well, I must say writing a grad quote is not as easy as it seems. You don't want to forget to thank your friends for the great memories made over the last 3 years, yet how can you do that in only 125 words. The main person I need to say thank you to is L.L. Without ya I don't know where I would be. To all my Kingsway people, see you at work. C.L don't forget about Mortimer, it should be my week soon. S.C Do you want to go for lunch? A.N and M.V thanks for the great times, see we don't need the rest of them. L.B. I will miss our old social times. To all the others- I won't forget ya!

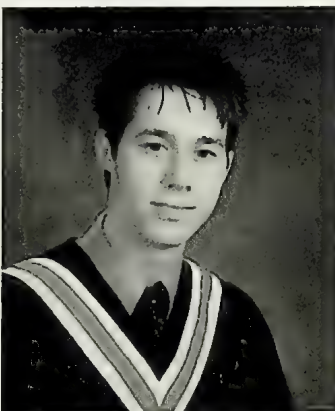

Amber Ashton

Dear Me,
Oh my, this is the stupidest thing I've ever had to do. But,... that's O.K, Forgive yourself. It won't last forever, just another 10 minutes at station #3. (thank you for being me card) At least I'll have a bag full of ridiculous things to take home w/ me. Don't feel bad that you have to participate in such a stupid, unisightful professional development.

I was always thought of as the quiet one, so . . . I guess all I have to say is thanks to all my friends, specifically Ashley, you're the wittiest woodchuck I know, (are you happy now?) and Chantel, Jennifer, Kristine, Melodie and Elyse. Thanks to my teachers, you always came to class. (mostly on time) Oh and . . .

I would like to start off by thanking all my friends for putting up with me. Goo who always let me throw her around, and LE who brought the electricity. Represent GC and all the guys in the Grad Fashion Show. Good luck to all the try-hard youth ballers, CB. Props to my boys BF, DP, AG, JM, DH and my little big bro. I bequeath to BS my picture of my "brother". And Inga, the one true angel in my life. You make the sweetest things in life so much sweeter, and you've touched my soul like I thought no one ever would. I will always love you.

It has been hard to really pin down what the last three years have meant. I'm not sure if high school laid the foundation for the rest of my life because I don't really think about it that way...then again, who does? Thanks to those who made everything worthwhile. Jessie (beard) and her crazy car excursions, Monika...what would I do without you (I'll see you at dinner), Miranda- "don't talk to yo mumma like dat!" Sasha I'll see you on the beach! I love you. Best wishes

"Keepin it Real!"

As I look back on past grad quotes from years before I realize that no matter how hard people try they can't break free of the boundaries, the "common" grad quote: "I'd like to thank J.B., C.A...." and then they usually throw in some lame joke or quote nobody has ever heard of but must have some philosophical meaning. Thanks to every person I have ever met, you have all affected me so much.

And now for the joke:
"If a tree falls in the woods and nobody is there and it falls on a mime, does anyone care?"

Thanks again.

Coming to high school can either be the best or worst time of someone's life. For me it was the best, and my friends made high school one of my greatest experiences. I will always remember my three closest friends, Justin, Lindsay, and Carli. Our picnics outside, patty-cakes, Tom Petty, tabasco sauce man, Britney Spears, tiger mart, dairy queen spares, hot boys, slumber parties, leg catches, and all of the other fun stuff I have neglected to mention due to the fact that it is hard to compound three amazing years into 125 words. Of course I will also miss my Bio buddies, Morgie "go altos", and fun times at Red Robin's. Here's to making more great memories. I love you all.

Tristin Brand

I wanted to say to everyone who said that I can do it... That I did! I'm finished for now but there is more for me to learn. So thanks to everyone!

Well it's finally over and now the beginning of our lives are about to start. I'm not going to lie and say "Man these twelve years have gone by" because they haven't believe me. Though it has been twelve memorable years. I've made friends and lost friends. I've learn't things that I'll need in life like reading & writing I've also learned things that I probably won't need like how pickles are good conductors of electricity. I would like to thank my family for supporting me through these years. I would also like to thank the friends I've made for all the memories. I won't forget you when I'm rich and famous. I never knew writing a grad quote would be so difficult. So since I can't think of anything funny or meaningful to say I will just write the only thing I wanted to say, and that's how much all my friends mean to me. I wish I could mention everyone but they didn't give us much space. You all know who you are anyways. Coral: We have to do lunch sometime. Juliette: Road Trip! We'll go to Jasper again soon. Mandy: Good luck with your hot air balloon and conveyor belt idea. Lindsay: Lets face it I could write a page of stuff to say to you so to sum it up Your the Best!

Everyone keep in touch. See ya, yo.

Wow i can't believe it's all over! I've had a great three years at vic. One of the things i've learned a lot about is appearance vs. reality. I want to thank all of my real friends for sticking with me right to the end. You know who you are. I've had a total blast with all of you (Man, Microwave nazi, spinelio and everybody else). Mom, You are the friend, that was just like me, In depth, In soul, the very thing a friend should be, thank you for being my friend my being forever to the end. I love you! The last three years have held the most cherished times. And with those times come wonderful memories I'll never forget for the rest of my life. All my love to Trixie, Carrie and Alice... without you, school wouldn't be tolerable. To all my other friends (you know who you are), the best of luck and may you all be successful in whatever you do and wherever you end up.

Once again thank-you every one, I love all of you.

Barry Deford

Well I'm no good at grad quotes, and I've noticed some people are thanking S.D. and W.R. but I however would like to thank all of the letters of the alphabet for well, times I needed them, like spelling things. So for the people who thanked only some letters, don't discriminate, we need letters to spell even the craziest letters like quagmire and calgary. I'm sure there is room for foreign letters like omega and egyptian two bir crossed with eyeballs. remember Barry is swahili for "elves have stolen my wallet".

To all my sweeties, thank you for putting up with me, I won't forget you when I'm famous! A.T.: Korn concerts and live cams will haunt us forever. Oh well. C.W., J.D., Fred: our constant smoke breaks. M.S.: EAT!! J.P.: Le Poisson! S.A., C.E.: so don't! Tino: Turkey scallopini recipes on T.V.! G.S., L.M.: I see you baybee! S.D.: ABBA shirts forever. Chad Poppe, I'll never forget you, thanks for the last dance. I know you all hear this constantly, but too bad: CRAZY TOWN! Anyone I missed, sorry but I still love you. Take care and watch out for blonde grinning guys at McDonalds!

Its finally over! But I must admit there were some good times this year. newyears in Jasper was a blast. Watch those men Monika!! And to all my friends that I have made and lost over the years, you have shaped me. Lindsay-all those bottle caps; Kevin; Carla- you've got to love sunburns; Monika-daily hey!!; Ian; all those in Jasper; Linzy-and all of our tech adventures; Miranda; my club friend Becky; the TA gang; all my other friends and everyone else whose influenced me over the years. Good bye and Good luck.

Risking the odds of my grad picture looking dorky and my quote sounding stupid, and being remembered as that dweeb who tried to be an intellectual, I offer these tips for success:

1. FuRst us good gramer; it shows you learnt some thing.
2. Stupefy the assemblage by engaging in effulgent, waggish and genial discussions.
3. Do not shove your face in a chocolate cream pie and sing off key.

Volleyball, basketball and soccer for six years? Think of all that sweat! Kudos to all my coaches for giving this slowpoke a chance.

Hi everybody! These past 3 years have been like a crazy roller coaster and it's one i will never forget. I just want to say thanks to my friends Pam, Sabrina, Michelle, and Coral. You guys are great! As sad as it might be I know that i will lose tough with you, but always remember 'I Luv Ya!' I also want to say hello to one girl that i have already lost touch with. I will never forget the friendship that we had, hope you get what you deserve A.W. I also can't forget to mention my true love Todd, i love you baby! Anyway good luck to all the teachers and students in the years to come. You all were so great!!!!

I'm really gunna miss this school even though I spent most of my time trying to get out. All I can really say is thank you to all the teachers that liked me or were just plain wonderful people. I love all my friends' weather I've showed it or not. I've met the best people and I hope we keep in touch even though I'm really not the greatest at it. Life's been interesting over the last 3 years. I'm never going to forget them and thank you for putting up with me everyone.

So our Time here is almost up. Maybe the clock will strike midnight and it will all be a dream. Or could it be that the story is just beginning? Thanks to the most wonderful group of friends I could have asked for, especially Linds, Michelle and Justin. Always remember: Rotating hotdogs, hopping chicken wire fences, candy bubbles, pink glowsticks, Michelle's house, Justin's graceful dismount off the bus, Buffet World, Tabasco-Sauce Man, bum-hand, flirting, first period spares with The Gang, Jonna's unbearable bass, Adventures in hospital land, Who's your Daddy?? You can call me flower if you want to...Piggy!!! Here's to another great chapter of our lives.

Fear, it's in us all. It can inspire us to do great things, and destroy us in an instant.

To my friends, it has been real great and those of you moving forward with your lives I'll miss you a lot. To the rest see ya tomorow. I'd like to thank my friends for all the fun in grade ten A.T, S.A., A.N, J.D sisters forever and all the rest I may not have mentioned you know me I have a mind like a steel trap, old and rusted. C.P you alawys brought a smile to my day and I'll never forget you. Justin we've had a lot of fun and were going to have a lot more

Bye!

This morning, I was eating breakfast, and I was pondering the differences between Lucky Charms and Rice Krispies SQUARES cereal. As I recall, I ate Rice Krispies SQUARES cereal on my fourteenth birthday, but, eating Lucky Charms has been a ritual since I was twelve. The dilemma: krispy goodness? or... a marshmallowy mouthful? I concluded that Lucky Charms was the way to go. After all, they are lucky. Giddy up.

I'm not sure how i got this far!! I have been through many rough times, going through highschool has been, by far one of the most difficult. and i just want all my peers to know that i could not be the person i am today if not for the support you have given me, and the experiences we have been through together. I am going to miss everybody and i hope that some day along my journey i will meet you again, until that day good luck along your own journey's
Special thanks: All the ladies in my life (you know who you are), thanks to I.B, D.F, M.A and J.m, also props go out too the "Matt Squad", also thanks to those i have not mentioned for just being part of my experience!!

School has been one of the most scary experiences of my life. Going from Elementary to Junior High, it was "Hold on a second, let me get this straight; We have to change for gym in front of other boys AND there's no recess, Monsters". Then Junior High to High School it was "Her Hair is what color and she has what pierced were, that's got to hurt!". Oh well on to bigger and better things, Sweet.

I think of everything in high school i will, of course, miss all my friends because without them I would never had made it. I will hold Chad's hand in my heart and hope he knows us down here miss him. I'll be missing my buds A.A., A.C., A.D., B.S., C.J., D.L., E.R., E.M.S., J.O., K.M., and K.W. I'll also remember the guys C.B., T.L., Boygeorge (frigid-air cause A.A. said so), Spoodude, Batman, and M.W. who made english class discussions so very interesting. Good luck to future grads and I hope you make it as far as I did.

There is so much to say. So many people that i want to thank for being to support me. New Years 2000 was awsome thank you CB and CL. To girls night with CB CL and JL. To my wonderful TA class this year (Juliette and Emilie), it was fun. Basketball has been great. but i have no idea what i will do with all my free time next year thanks guys. The best summer i had was thanks to LC, MG and KH. We always had the best talks. To many things to remeber or to say. Thank you mom you have been so tolerant, and thanks to all the people that i didn't mention but have been wonderful.

12 years of being told what to do and now what? I go off either to more school, or right into the work force. Either way it's just to please some higher authority. I think after graduation I'm going to run away and live in a shack. I'll build it where no one can get me. Maybe I'll live in a cave because it's easier to defend against intruders. Well I thought it would never end but here we are finished. Time here was well spent. Flinging tomatoes off decks, storage room jaunts with Vikki, the camera's "secret hiding place" and mine and Molly's attempt to steal Lund's car and drive to Ireland, I say it was a pretty successful three years. Kristina was right "we shall have our food and tent it too!" Burgers, wall mockers, the biggest mac, workin con-structors and beans cannot be forgotten. I would like to thank Mac's for supplying the nutritious slurpies that I have for lunch and to all my friends, you know who you are. Thanx to Lund and Mr. D for being very unique teachers.

Well, this is the end of the beginning. It is time for us to go out into the world armed with all that the teachers had squeezed into us. From the useful little nick nacks to the wealth of life experiences, we will never forget it, whether we like it or not. High school is very stressful, whether its exams, reports, or overdue homework. Luckily, my friends are there to lighten my load and help me forget about my anxieties. I would like to thank you Gemina, Conscia, Insana, Amica, Puella, Caudex, Nanook, Jacky, Amanda, Amber, Gen, Kermit, and the rest of the lot of you (you know who you are).

G: Did you ever find Bugs Bunny attractive when he'd put on a dress and play a girl bunny?

W: No.

G: Me neither, I was just asking.

Seeing as I'm smarter and more important than all of you, I guess I have to take this opportunity to give you some advice. Well, all I really have to say is: go buy some Dream Theater albums. Oh yeah - graduation, special friends blah blah blah precious memories and all of that. Don't overthink this one, kids.

It's been splendid: Jasper, cabin parties, mud fights, horses&REM, the pickle mobile, N.Y. 2000, London soap opera, my shingdings, my b-twin, girls' night, Halloween '99, Mortimer, one acts, electra, adventures in the hallway, running in the rain, 'Dentity crisis, laughing so hard your face hurts, butterflies in your stomach, road trips, Superman. I know i'm forgetting tons, so: If you've cheered me up, danced with me, stole my heart, made me laugh, taught me something new, made me cry, made me yell, or made me feel warm and tingly...Je vous adore!

Whilst rowing in my canoe down the hallways of learning, I looked left over my shoulder and what should I find standing there but my Elephant of life; This elephant taught me that even having all the friends in the world, there would never be for me too many people to hang-out and have a good time with.

I thank you all for an amazing three years!! Hoping that your very own frogs and giraffes have helped teach an important lesson, and that that lesson will carry you happily into the future.

Thanks mr.D !!!!!!!!!!!

Well you've cracked the sky, scrapers fill the air but will you keep building higher till there's no more room up there. Will you make us laugh, will you make us cry, will you tell us when to live, will you tell us when to die? I know we've come a long way, we're changing day to day, but tell me, where do the children play?"

I'm pretty sure that when I came to Vic in grade seven, I thought that I'd know what to say when my time came around...well actually, I do (but like every other homework assignment, it's finished only at the last minute). If there's anything I've learned here, it's that people from the west side are all talk, and that 7 girls in a minivan have a way of teasing the Western Boot Factory. Anyway, now would be a good time to quote S Club 7, or LaBamba, or maybe even Full House, but I'm just going to keep it to myself. I'm off like a dirty shirt (okay, I at least had to quote Pretty in Pink) Masta Flexible.

well high school was definitely memorable...The people and places the parties and friends thanx for a bang up time . Here's to the people that made these 3 years what they were: K.s, A.N, K.m, K.s, M.M, J.K, M.L, J.D, A.T, And all those from the grassy knoll and the many more I've whose initials i can't remember. To those we've loved and and those we've lost ...here's to a better future full of life , love , and liberty. Here's hoping i see you all in the future thanx for a great ride .

Shelley MacPhee

Well my 3 years are up and thanks to everyone who made them great. I am now on to better (or possibly worse) adventures. Good luck to all my friends on their future endeavours.

Holly MacQuarrie

I can't believe I'm done! Thanks to SAS for getting me here (you all know who you are! Thanks for everything). To JD, thanks for all the Calgary trips-Klesla, King Krahn and all those other 'boys' @ the 'Dome "They're like, EVERYWHERE!" sometimes I think you understand me better than i under-stand myself. LH, library clubs to this, no matter what i'm gonna be there for you. Lynda, Linda and the White Girls Forever!! LV, thanks for being there. Remember how steep those hills can be, and never let those memories die! In 20 years we're gonna need something to laugh about. All my Spruce Boys, CG, DD, LQ, RJ, & AF (wish you were here!) thanks for the memories, I'll never forget you.

Tashina Makokis

The most wonderful thing about Tashina, is that Tashina's a wonderful thing! Her brains are made out of rubber, her shoes are made out of string! She's bouncy, wouncy, pouncy, founcy, fun, fun, fun, FUN! The most wonderful thing about Tashina's is that, I'm the only one! I'm the only one! Love you mom, Lauren, Cassi, LauraC, all my Young Women, the church moms, and everyone else who has touched my life. I wouldn't have made it without you. No really, it's true! Here's to memories of lunchtimes in the cafeteria, falling in love with the same guy-over and over, Savage Garden, guys, Hanson, church dances, and ah ah ah. And remember: "All you need is love."

Well this my first and last year at Vic comes to an end. My only regret is not having to many memories. I thank those I was privileged enough to call my friends. Wish I could have spent more time with you. I thank my teachers for making this year fulfilling even in a very amusing way, Mr. Jorgenson and Mrs. Trueman, thank you for your understanding, and finally though there are a few I must single out; Mrs. Chemago for being an insightful loori, Mrs. Radford for being Mr. Lund for your patience and support throughout the year. Finally I thank all of those involved in making Vic such an inviting place. "Go Bananal"

Kirsten as seen by Karen:

I see many things in this girl's future as a poor, starving artist/soccer mom (shut your mouth Karen, I will never be a soccer mom!) sketching on the streets of Paris, mullet-spotting and shouting "Viva Cuba!" No more hours wallowing at Humpty's or getting lost on St. Albert buses for this girl. Thanks to everyone who made these past three years so amazing, and those that showed me not to take the good for granted. Mom, Dad, Sarah, Shad, Klayer, Linds, Eric, Benny, Trevor, you guys all taught me a lot, and helped me out a lot too. Thanks. It's scary leaving these places that have become so familiar over the years, I hope we all find what we're looking for. Make good with what you've got.

12 years and this is what it all comes down to. First of all, I have to say lunch will never be the same again. Grade 10 in the cafe was awesome. Grade 11 and 12 the "Cliche" came along. You know who you are. I can't think of a better way to spend lunch. I'd like to thank all the great teachers, who've helped me along the way. To my friends, you are special to me. I know everyone has a bright future, enjoye it, I can't wait to hear about it. I am grateful for all the performances I've seen and was involved in. Also the amazing people I've met, it was awesome and unique to Vic. Good luck. Thanks to my family.

Wow, the end of grade 12. I can't believe it! Vic has certainly been the right choice for my High School Career. So many great people, wonderful projects, and best of all, so many memories. To all of the people that have been there for me over these three years, I LOVE YOU ALL! Christie, we have been through so much, and I will always be there for you as you have been there for me. Becky, Michelle thank you for your endless support, I love you girls. Wayne, you will always be in my heart, "I'm gonna love you forever!" D.P, E.E, G.H, L.K, L.E, and everyone else, thanks for the fun times. So Long Vic! One day maybe we will meet again.

Oh goodness! So much to say, so little space... well, here goes: thanks to all the teachers for putting up with the nuisance known as Fred; How much coffee Gwar? Too much; J.D.- thank goodness for strangers with casts and WHERE'S that show Mikey? A.N.- Thank heavens its beef; A.T.- watch out for flying Rice Crispie Squares; W.O.- you're the best biggest-little brother ever! Mom and Dad, you guys are so great; and to those who aren't mentioned, I'll tattoo your name on my back after graduation. A yearbook quote is very important, it gives people something to remember you by, and I could do a lot of things.

I could be inspirational. I could be gripping. I could be entertaining. I could be humorous. I could be judgmental. I could be cynical. I could be eccentric. I could be charismatic. I could quote a famous person, cartoon, or company slogan. I could have a theory on life. I could tell everyone about the good times I've had. Heck, I could even make up a insanely wacky story. But I'm sure there's enough of that in other people's quotes, so I'm just going to do a surprised text-man: :^o|<

"What really shapes and conditions and makes us is somebody only a few of us ever have the courage to face: and that is the child you once were, long before formal education ever got its claws into you—that impatient, all-demanding child who wants love and power and can't get enough of either and who goes on raging and weeping in your spirit till at last your eyes are closed and all the fools say, "Doesn't he look peaceful?" It is those pent-up, craving children who make all the wars and all the horrors and all the art and all the beauty and discovery in life, because they are trying to achieve what lay beyond their grasp before they were five years old."

Well, I assume that this ditty is supposed to consist of a whole bunch of Kyla-esque sayings that provide a chuckle or two upon looking back twenty years from now. However, I feel that for a more accurate summation of my true dramatic persona, I would have to include many buttons providing humorous sound effects and show-tunes. Alas, despite my protestation, my request was deemed "not plausible", and promptly dismissed. Thus I leave you with this: Never stop believing, because you are meant to be whatever you dream of becoming. And on that note, I believe that I am ready for my close-up Mr. De Mille.

What life has taught me I would like to share with those who want to learn. "Until the philosophy which holds one race superior and another inferior is finally and permanently discredited and abandoned; that until there are no longer first-class and second-class citizens of any nation; that until the colour of a man's skin is of no more significance than his eyes; that until basic human rights are equally guaranteed to all, without regard to race-until that day, the dream of lasting peace and world citizenship and the rule of international morality will remain but a fleeting illusion, to be pursued but never attained."

Well, I've finally done it! It took me more time than expected to finish high school, but I'm done!! Many friends have come and gone since I've been here at this school, but I will never forget any of you. I'll especially miss you K.S! I'll never forget the balloon men and the popcorn fight! Up to a point a man's life is shaped by environment, heredity, and movements and changes in the world about him. Then there comes a time when it lies within his grasp to shape the clay of his life into the sort of thing he wishes to be. Only the weak blame parents, their race, their times, lack of good fortune, or the quirks of fate. Everyone has it within his power to say, "This I am today; that I will be tomorrow."

Once a river is dammed, the river's life fades as well as everything else around it. Flood gates may open once in a while but to always be controlled. Like many rivers, my river which is much like my mind, links to the sea. The sea is my teacher, my pride rises and falls like the tide. The dream to be free is too strong for the dam that has kept me. My currents run high, my rapids run wild, I shall be free. The dam cracks and it crumbles. I have regained my own power and found my dream. I am free.

Hey Kids! Thanks for being there for me and for never failing to make me laugh: chong!, Keltie's hiccups, the friendship song (hee hee), the original Bad News Bear, dear Sharla who was always asleep, and everyone else I love y'all! To Ms. Lowry, Ms. Tigner, and Mrs. Witte, thank you for always encouraging me to 'take the risk' and for giving me so many opportunities to improve my dancing technique. Smilanich, thanks for being such a poopamalo. I'll miss your english class. "Everyday dullness has begun to breathe as I remember the incredible lightness of being"

Now that highschool is over, I have years of University and work to look forward to. If I get on top of things, I should get in touch with all of you by the time I've retired. But seriously I've had a lot of fun. There are only about a million classes I would like to have taken, and hundreds of people I would like to have met. But thanks to those I did. Special thanks to Zoe, Joz An Nel Sta Bryn, Teachers, and Family (mom dad beve). Ain't no party like a V-club party!

This is it! We're done, it wasn't easy but we're finally done! Now all we have to do is get through the rest of our lives. That's a scary thought! So many people have touched my life and helped me become the person I am today. I'd like to thank Mrs. C, Miss. M, and Mrs. T, for all your advice and strength has really helped. R.P: You are my one and only and I love you. C.P: Gone but never to be forgotten. To everyone else who wasn't mentioned, life wouldn't have been the same without you and I'll miss you all. This year I have learned who my true friends are, those that I am talking about, you know who you are. Well, it's been 12 years in the making, and even though I will be sad to say goodbye to some friends, it's time for a change, time for something new, time for each of us to go out and make a name for ourselves.

WOW! 12 years of school and world, I'M NOT READY YET! Mom & Dad, I love you, thank you for believing in me! A.D, for helping me find hiding spots when teachers didn't understand we just couldn't take one more class that day! Mornings at Humpty's, slippery sidewalks, the never ending hallway, and the times we laughed at absolutely nothing. DJ, you helped me love me for who I am, and not what others want me to be. M&N your like my sisters! J.C "You did not save a baby puppy from a burning car" Adrienne, you have been a true friend. I've learned a few things in the last few years, first i'd like to thank all my friends, especially L.S, R.B, both matts,
D.F and C.R, next, this is what i learned:
Dan's cars are not possessions , they are a part of him, the word sandwich can be used to get you out of any awkward situation, girls are harder to understand the older you get, and a happy cabbage is the best kind. I'd like to thank the entire football team for not sucking both of the years i played.

taught me that marks are useless in need later. I only have six words left, keep it real.

As happy as I am to finally be leaving High School, I am really going to miss Vic. I have made some incredible friends that I will always remember. Holly, I love you for introducing me to everyone when I was so shy. Amanda and Heather, my two best friends that I want to name my children after, we had some great adventures and you were with me during the HARDEST time of my life. Tristian and Chelsea, I think you are amazing! You always have a good story to tell and you really know how to energise a party! Daniel, my other girlfriend, I treasure your sense of humour. And Shelly Cat, I always loved having your extra oomph around. Best of luck everyone!

When I started at Vic five years ago I thought that the years until graduation would take forever... I was right... but I've had the time of my life! Cheer-leading's been awesome. So many memories esp. the ones from Toronto, summer camp 2000, Minneapolis. Big thanks to Mrs. G, JS, SL, and SP for being the best coaches and friends any team could have. TM, CF, AP, MC, EH, NC, MH (see you in Florida!), CD, you're my lucky star, the varsity cheer team, and many more: friends make the world go round. Don't be sad... everything changes.

Principal's Farewell Message

It is difficult to comprehend that I have been Principal at Vic for sixteen years. It seems like just yesterday that I was given the assignment of revitalizing a school in danger of closing. Sixteen years later Victoria School is a vibrant K to 12 facility attracting students from the Capital region and beyond. I like to think of Victoria School as the Juilliard of Canada. Many people in the arts community, including the Honourary Chair of the Victoria Foundation of the Arts, Arthur Hiller, a Vic graduate and internationally respected film maker, support this belief.

You cannot believe how hard it will be for me to leave Vic – my passion, my life – after so many years. It has been a wonderful journey filled with countless challenges and successes. I depart knowing the school has become a highly respected learning institution that ensures students receive an education through the arts that would be difficult to duplicate. Although I would like to believe that Vic was successful solely because of my vision and drive, the school would not have happened without the support of community, parents, students, a creative and committed staff and a Board of Trustees and Superintendent who encouraged our initiatives. It has been a labour of love by many people.

The last part of my dream will be the completion of a modernization project that will see the creation of facilities to match our unique programs. I will regret not being at the school until construction is completed but I do look forward to attending the grand opening. I will no doubt be a "sidewalk superintendent" while the work proceeds.

To the graduates of 2001, I wish you success and happiness wherever your life may take you.

To the students who continue at Vic, I hope you remember fondly your years at this school and that you will continue to invite me to your graduation celebrations. All of you mean a great deal to me.

This year we will celebrate ninety years of Victoria School history. In ten more years, we will be celebrating a century of success. I hope to see many of you at that historic event.

Sincerely,

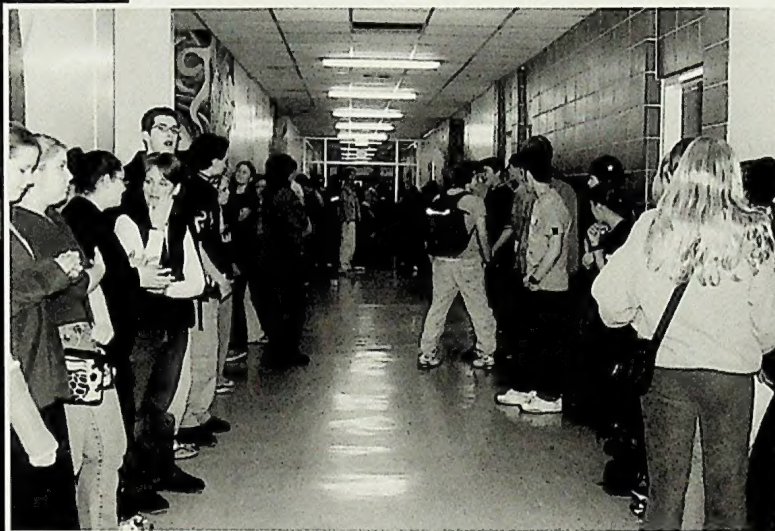

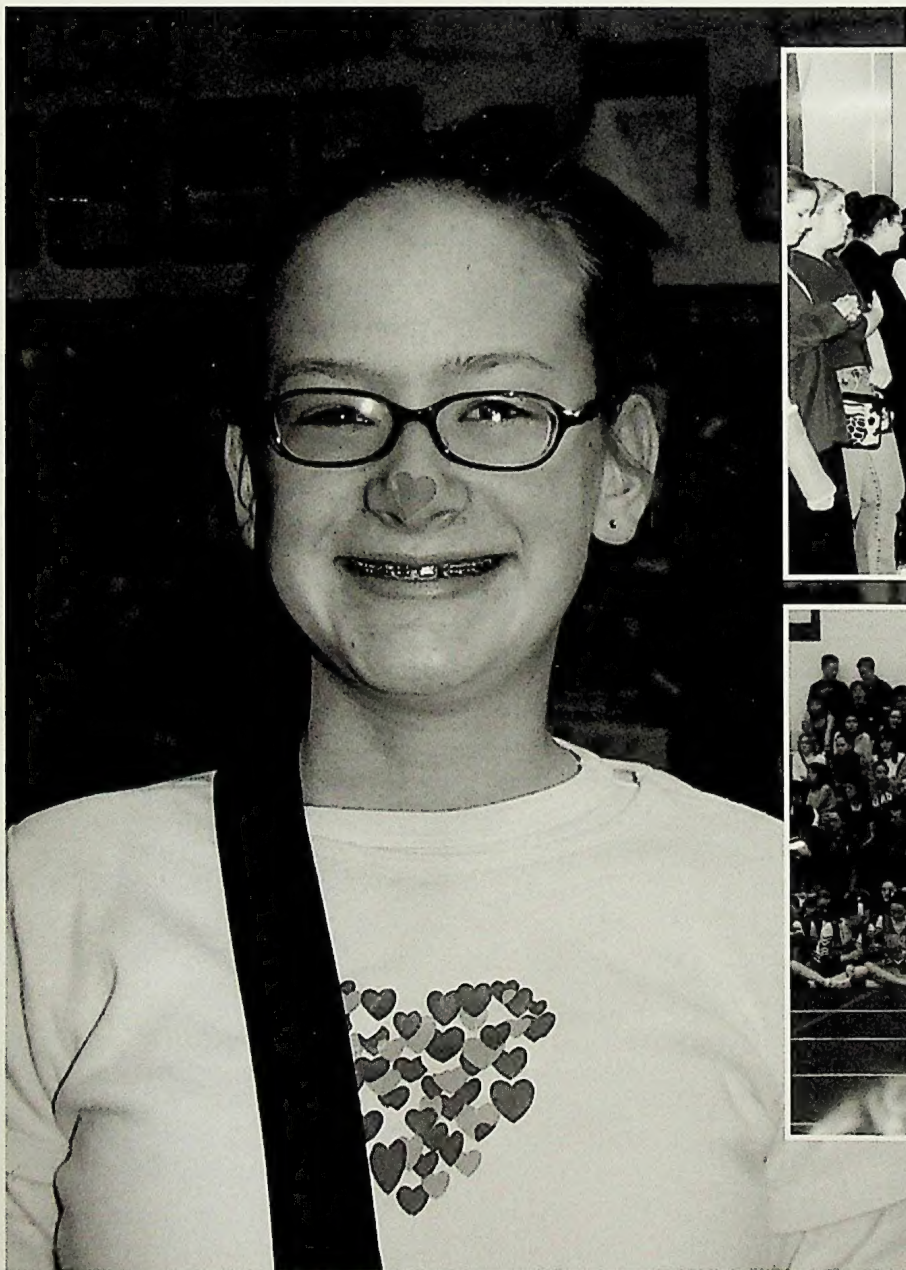

R.C. Maskell
Principal
